SUBJECT : Status of U. S. Military Facilities in Okinawa under the SOFA

REF :

On December 23 Mr. Fumihiko TOGO, Director-General of American Affairs in the Foreign Ministry, formally requested information on U. S. military facilities in Okinawa. This information was requested as a basis for subsequent negotiations with the Japanese Government on the status of U. S. military facilities in Okinawa under the SOFA. The Foreign Ministry requested a fact sheet similar to that given them prior to the Bonin negotiations.

HICOM has been requested to prepare this data for subsequent transmittal to the Japanese Government. The Foreign Ministry has been informed that the material will be provided when available.

The exchange of letters between Mr. Togo and Minister Sneider is attached.
